

October 2021

In partnership with the Jersey Evening Post

WELCOME

Welcome to the October issue of the Town Crier, which went to press during the week the States Assembly voted to approve the funding for the new hospital at Overdale. This is a decision which has divided Islanders and which has caused particular concern to St Helier residents due to the potential impact that the project will have on homes, parking spaces, traffic flows, open spaces and trees in our parish. The government has agreed to find a replacement site for the Jersey Bowling Club and to fund the work, but to date no site has been found. Parishioners will be invited to a Parish Assembly in the next month or so to consider the compensation package which will be offered to the Parish in return for the loss of various parcels of land required for the project. This important meeting will be well advertised in the media and on social media.

Many parishioners will have enjoyed the Corn Riots festival which took place at the end of last month and which was coordinated by the Parish's Town Centre and Events Manager, Connor Burgher, assisted by Jason Maindonald. It was wonderful to see so many enjoying the stalls, live music and entertainment over the long weekend and we look forward to more festivals of this sort in future, especially the return of the St Helier Street Party and the Havre des Pas Seaside Festival next year. This month the Town Hall is hosting the 60th anniversary events for the Association of Jersey Architects, details of which are in the magazine, together with information and comments about some of the other things taking place in our busy Parish.

For advice and information about all the services the Parish provides, or to get more involved in Parish life, please go to the Parish website, sthelie.je, telephone 811811 or email townhall@posh.gov.je.

Pumpkins in the Central Market herald the arrival of autumn

OPENING OF THE FIELD OF REMEMBRANCE AND POPPY APPEAL AFTERNOON TEA

Parishioners are invited to the Cenotaph at 1pm on Friday 29th October for the official launch of this year's poppy appeal and to enjoy afternoon tea at the Town Hall, 2.30 – 4.30 pm on the same day. It is hoped that Chelsea Pensioners will be in attendance, and that Islanders will once again give generously to this year's appeal in the fortnight before Remembrance Sunday.

THE ASSOCIATION OF JERSEY ARCHITECTS' 60TH ANNIVERSARY

The Association of Jersey Architects has chosen to return to the Town Hall to host their 60th Anniversary celebration events. The event is a mix of walks, talks, exhibition, panel discussions and celebrations.

The focus of the week will be the exhibition, '60 Years 60 Buildings', where each year of the Association will be illustrated by a Jersey building. Constable Simon Crowcroft will open the exhibition on Monday 8th November by hosting a vin d'honneur, and the exhibition will be open to the public from Tuesday 9th November until 12pm on Friday 12th November. Further detail of events will be published in the media.

CONSTABLE'S COMMENT

TWENTY IS PLENTY!

I've had quite a few messages expressing disappointment over the Roads Committee's decision last month to impose a blanket 20mph speed limit on most of St Helier's roads, having already done this on the roads within the Ring Road. Recently the matter has been raised in the States Assembly, with the Minister for Infrastructure, Deputy Kevin Lewis, refusing to be drawn when I asked him if he believes 'twenty is plenty' in densely populated residential areas.

There was some confusion created by talk of a 20mph on the Inner Road (St Aubin's Road) as the new limit will not apply to the whole road, only to the section leading up to the King George V Cottage Homes, travelling into town, nor will it apply to the main roads like Queen's Road, the Esplanade, Commercial Buildings or the Ring Road itself. Even so, some people clearly believe that this is going to make their journeys unacceptably slow especially at times when traffic is light and there are few people about.

In making its decision the Roads Committee decided to put road safety first as there is no doubt that a lower speed limit, if enforced, will mean that collisions with other road users when collisions occur, will have less serious results, especially in crashes involving cyclists and pedestrians. There is precedent for this across most European towns where built-up areas have 20mph limits as standard, and in our own Island we find them in most parish or village centres. If the Committee was to refuse to introduce the 20mph limit in town streets which almost invariably have far more people living on and around them than is the case, for example, in St Peter's Village, St Helier residents could rightly claim they were being treated unfairly.

Others have commented on the apparent futility of the recent consultation exercise, given that the new limits were imposed even though a majority of those who responded to the consultation was against the lower speeds. But consultation is not the same thing as a referendum: the Parish of St John recently ran an online poll to decide on a new Parish slogan (a good idea), and the one that got the most support was duly adopted by the Constable. But are we really going to base the decision whether to lower a particular speed limit on how many people respond to a poll? The Roads Committee has to consider not only the quantity of responses on a particular matter but also the quality of responses, i.e., the reasoning for supporting the change or otherwise. For example, particular weight has to be given to the arguments of a headteacher of a town primary school who wrote in about the proposed changes, explaining how the lower speed would benefit the many children who make their way to school each day. We also have to bear in mind the entreaties we receive from residents on town roads outside the Ring Road whose problems with speeding include the difficulty in accessing their homes, loss of domestic animals, and a general reduction in their quality of life.

'Twenty is plenty' is a slogan which has been used by many communities arguing for lower speed limits. Like many drivers I enjoy going a bit faster but I have to accept the fact that I can't do that in Val Plaisant, for example, or along Havre des Pas, as doing so would cause unacceptable prejudice and danger to the hundreds of people and their families who live in the area. If I am in a hurry to get somewhere in town I need to leave a bit more time to make the journey, though the extra time required following the introduction of the new speed limits will be measured in a minute or two, I expect.

PARISH NEWS

UPDATE FROM GROW JERSEY

As summer wanes and the flowers fade, our attention has turned to the practical tasks we need to undertake to keep everything running smoothly at the field. We have an awesome Monday Maintenance Team, on-site weekly from 10am to 3pm. Headed up by David and Kevin, this month they have been busy keeping the water butts filled, tying up the trees to stakes, raking the grass from the paths (kindly cut by the ever-supportive Parish of St Helier Team) and building composting bays, amongst other tasks. They have lots more planned for this Autumn and are looking for more volunteers - if you'd like to join in, make some new friends, learn (or teach!) some skills, get physically active and support this amazing project, please email the GROW Team at enquiries@growtogether.je. You're welcome to join in, whether just for an hour or for a regular session - either way we'd love to see you.

We're also delighted to officially start our education programme this month, and are being joined by Highlands College Life Skills and Grainville School students weekly. This week they have been weeding around the fruit and nut trees, to cut down on competition for water and minerals, and then mulching with woodchip to keep the weeds at bay. Heartfelt thanks go to Jersey Mutual, who kindly sponsor our education programme, and to Channel Island Tree Services for the gift of woodchip. Please do contact us if your group would like to be involved.

ST HELIER YOUTH & COMMUNITY TRUST BY CHAIRMAN, ANDREW LEWIS

Become a Trustee: The St Helier Youth & Community Trust is seeking additional trustees to assist in its work. If you have managerial or legal skills, project management experience or previous involvement in the Charitable sector, then the Trust would be very interested in hearing from you.

The Trust provides a central generic vehicle for charitable giving within the Parish. It raises funds and commits them to community-based projects both large and small. In essence, it acts as a channel for charitable giving for social projects that are not otherwise provided for by the municipality. Projects are for the benefit of all parishioners, but particularly the young and the elderly.

By virtue of office, the Trustees are bound by the normal fiduciary responsibilities that ensure that members take their commitment and obligations very seriously to the benefit of the whole community.

The Trust sometimes sets up smaller working committee groups to perform specific tasks, such as a 'general purpose committee' or 'fundraising and events committee'. One such group is currently looking at community facilities in St Helier to perhaps acquire land and build the Parish's first-ever purpose-built community centre. This is a large project and will require the help of dedicated and skilled individuals with energy, creativity and good project management skills.

The Trust, although very well supported by the Parish, sits at arm's length from the municipality. The Trust's status enables the Trustees to act in the best interest of the beneficiaries unencumbered by other municipal interests.

From time to time the Trust also makes legitimate applications to other charitable foundations and trusts for specific project funding; the Trust fundraises in its own right and is also working on a project to encourage both individuals and corporates to consider some of the fiscally attractive covenanted options that exist, whereby both the donor and the Trust benefit from tax credits, and it's also planned to promote the Trust as a vehicle for legacy giving.

If this type of work interests you and you have the skills to assist the St Helier Youth & Community Trust's future success, we would love to hear from you. Please contact Andrew Lewis on 07797 711042 or email lewisad1963@gmail.com.

Now winter's on the way, if you're looking for somewhere to hang out in a safe, warm and welcoming place with friends in town after school or to meet new people, come and join the Move On Youth Project – free pool, free tea/coffee/squash, video games, and food from the Café, or just come to chill out. The Move On Project also offers afternoon drop-ins (free entry) on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 4-6pm. Open for anyone in Year 9+. AUTUMN'S HERE AND THE FIRST TOWER YOUTH PROJECT HAS BEEN IN THE KITCHEN BY YOUTH WORKER BILL MOORE

As the evenings draw in we've taken to the kitchen for solace. Everyone has their own ideas on what to cook, and we've supported our young people in their exploration of new recipes, trying new things and developing new skills – plus being able to eat their own creations of course! Our Year 7s decided to recreate their favourite McDonalds dish, which encouraged opportunity for discussion on healthy eating choices, whilst our Seniors group made pizza from scratch, learning about breadmaking in the process, and new members in our Year 5 group this term chose to make pancakes. We've also helped our groups out with physics homework, turning gravity and forces in action into a full-scale experiment.

If you're interested in coming along and joining us, you can find up-to-date information by searching Google for 'First tower youth centre'.

THE LA POUQUELAYE YOUTH PROJECT LOOKS FORWARD TO WELCOMING YOU BY YOUTH WORKER KRISTY BURKE

Following a very busy summer holiday, the La Pouquelaye Youth Project is open and looking forward to seeing new and old faces back again. The summer programme included all sorts of activities, from surfing and watersports, beach days, visits to Creepy Valley, BBQs and boat trips, as well as some of the regular evening sessions. All staff, volunteers and young people are thanked for making it so enjoyable, and a massive thank you goes to the Association of Jersey Charities for funding the summer programme. Year 7 enjoyed their first residential and experience at Crabbé despite and very wet and windy start, and this month the Youth Project has launched the first of its new term competitions – an idea suggested by the young people themselves – which is that they are all having a think about what the Youth Project means to them and redesigning our club logo. Watch this space to see the designs and the overall winner.

OUR TOWN

BY CONNOR BURGHER, TOWN CENTRE & EVENTS MANAGER

ST HELIER COMES ALIVE FOR THE CORN RIOTS

I'm pleased to report that the Parish's first major event since the pandemic enlivened the town at the end of September. The Corn Riots Festival or, in Jèrriais, La Folle d'Avoût, saw well over 25,000 Islanders young and old visiting St Helier over the three days. It was fantastic to enjoy the atmosphere around town and the event was a great success; I'd like to thank all those who contributed to making it so - in particular, the St Helier Youth and Community Trust, who helped us give young and under-represented people a voice on the main stage. There has been a real recognition that this kind of festival does a great deal to attract people to town, and I am looking forward to seeing more events of this sort in future.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

I'm delighted to report that all being well this year we'll see the return of the ever-popular Senior Citizens' Christmas Lunches. If you'd like to apply for a place simply cut out the application form at the bottom of this page, fill it in and return it to the Town Hall by Friday 19th November. The Lunches take place on the first 3 Sundays of December at 12.30pm, please select two preferred dates and tickets will be sent to you during the week of the 22nd. Christmas in town officially kicks off on Thursday 18th November with the Christmas Light Switch On and I do hope you and your family will be able to join us.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Yet again I'm pleased with the high level of investment we are continuing to see in St Helier. Old favourites are getting a facelift and new stores are popping up here and there too. Footfall figures, whilst not quite at pre-pandemic levels, are holding steady, which is encouraging, and I think as we move towards the festive period we'll see an increase in footfall as people head to shops to make the most of what St Helier has to offer.

HISTORIC ST HELIER, GERAINT JENNINGS: THE HOSPITAL CHAPEL

Among the many issues connected with the move of the main Hospital site from Gloucester Street/The Parade is what will happen to the historic elements currently preserved in the Hospital Chapel. As ever with construction projects in Jersey, it seems, there's some controversy in the history of the building.

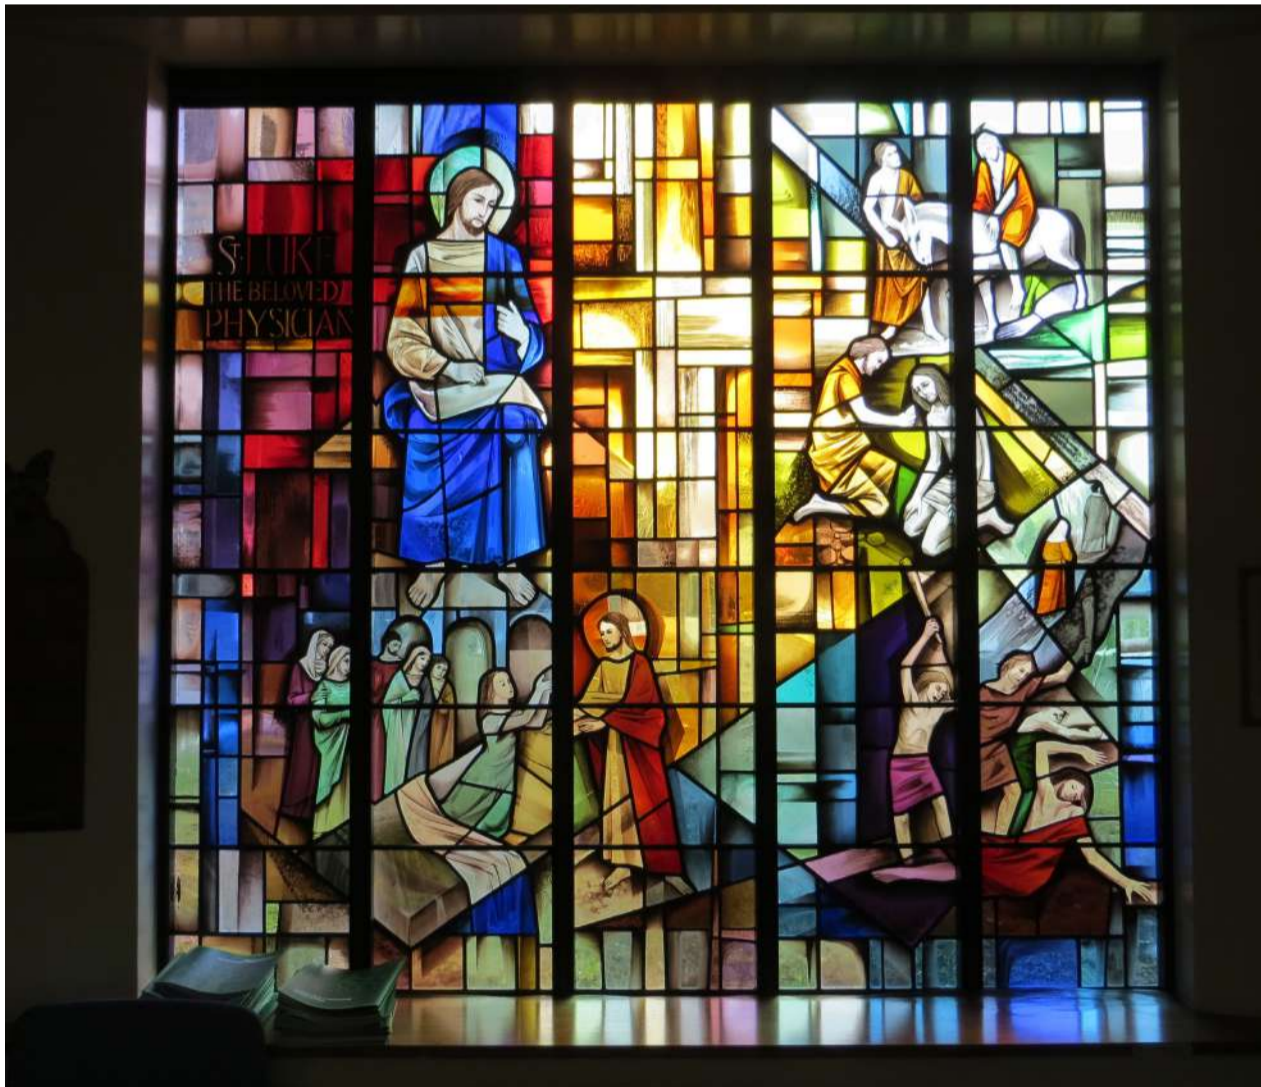

When the hospital was founded in 1740 it was more of a poor house than a place of medicine, and, by 1778 when there were around 300 "paupers" accommodated, the healing aspect had grown, but strangely enough, no provision had been made for the inmates' spiritual needs. An anonymous donor dropped 6 louis d'or into the alms box with a written note that this was to provide a pulpit for the preaching of the Gospel. Nothing happened, so 9 months later the donor wrote a letter to the President of the Hospital Committee, asking why the pulpit had not been provided. It turned out that the alms box had not been opened in all that time! After a heated campaign involving poetry in French and debate in the States, the Rectors undertook to organise some preaching, but there was still no chapel.

In 1824 Charles Robin left in his will some of the money he'd made in the North Atlantic cod fisheries for the construction of a chapel. This chapel was replaced, following a decision in 1844, by a Neo-Gothic design in the Parade frontage of the hospital by architect John Hayward (also responsible for Victoria College), to which were added a set of stained glass windows towards the end of the 19th Century.

These windows were incorporated in the current Chapel within the modern Parade wing, along with other stained glass and heritage items including a wooden dove, part of the oldest church in Beauce County, Quebec, given to the Chapel in 1966 to mark the bicentenary of the founding of Charles Robin's company in Canada.

JÈRRIAIS, GERAINT JENNINGS: MAIS CH'EST-I' VRAI?

Au temps passé quand v'nait lé Stembre et qu'les nyits d'Hivé nos tchiaient sus l'co, les gens soulaient raconter d's alibèles, des scienches et des fianfliues à l'entou du feu. Nou pâlait d'chorchières, dé bianches femmes, d'ouéthous et l'dgiâbl'ye à quat'. Nou criyait bein qué par chèque carre d'un c'mîn nou pouôrrait tchaie becque à barbe auve tchique émânue ou rencontrer eune chorchiéthe. En Ville nou viyait l'bélengi l'travèrs des prés, et nou touônait sa paûte à l'envèrs à seule fin dé s'protégi des Gens du Vendrédi.

Au jour d'aniet, ch'n'est pon pus à co à l'entou d'l'âtre qu'nou raconte des fianfliues. Nan-dgia, nou c'meunnique un tas d'niolîn en lingne, sus les médias sociaux. Y'a des niolîneurs tch'êtruelent des histouaithes dé compliots, dé conspithâtons et d'souô-disants êrmièdes. Les grôsses têtes, qué nou propose, ont cabochi chennechîn, ont faussé chenna, ont muchi la véthité.

Tout comme tout chein qu'j'êcris, mé, en Jèrriais sus la gâzette est chent du chent fiabl'ye, ouôth'-en-châle. Crochet, crochet, si j'mens, j'îthai sus la barre dé feu!

But is it true?

Time past as the nights drew in, people would tell tales around the fire about witches, ghosts and all sorts of monsters, such as the will-o'-the-wisp to be seen across Town meadows. One used to turn one's pocket inside out to protect against witches assembling on Fridays.

Nowadays it's not so much around the hearth that tall stories are told but on social media, with people spreading conspiracy theories and so-called medical treatments. It's said that those in charge have faked or covered everything up.

But I 100% guarantee that everything I write in Jèrriais in the newspaper is reliable. Cross my heart and hope to die!

'FORGOTTEN ARMY' REMEMBERED

Islanders and Island leaders gathered at Mount Bingham last month to lay wreaths in memory of the thousands of allied service personnel who died in the Far East during the Second World War. The event was organised by Jean McLaughlin, BEM, whose father served in the campaign. Parishioner and local historian, Peter Tabb, explained why we should remember these particular servicemen and women:

"When you go home, don't worry about what to tell your loved ones and friends about service in Asia. No one will know where you were or where it is if you do. You are and will remain the Forgotten Army," so said General William Slim, who commanded the 14th Army for most of 1943-1945.

Formed in eastern Asia to defend British India and retake Burma from the Japanese, the 14th Army was the largest all-volunteer army in the world by 1945, and its best-known action was defeating the 15th Army of the Japanese in March 1944 as it attempted to invade India from Burma.

On 1st November 1945, the 14th Army ceased to exist and was renamed the Malaya Command, because its activities in stemming the advance of the Japanese towards India were overshadowed by events in Western Europe.

Each year in Jersey we remember and honour all the Jersey men who fought, were captured or died in the Far East between 1941 and 1945.

WESTMOUNT DAY NURSERY

Our charges at Westmount Day Nursery enjoy a lot of exploring, including using their imaginations and senses by finding all sorts of uses for various safe loose parts that we keep to one side for them to play with.

They have also enjoyed exercising their artistic skills by doing some large-scale painting (and getting very messy!) outside with the paint rollers while it's still warm enough to do so.

If you'd like to talk to us about your child attending the Westmount Day Nursery, please contact Nursery Manager, Michelle Kiberd, at michelle.kiberd@posh.gov.je or 811718.

THE LATEST FROM OUR CUSTOMER SERVICES TEAM: RATES SURCHARGE DAY

The Team again reminds all ratepayers who have not yet paid their 2021 rates that the surcharge date this year is Wednesday 20th October; any bills not paid by 4.30pm on that day will, in accordance with article 27 of the Rates (Jersey) Law, 2005, be subject to a ten per cent surcharge for late payment. Accepted payment methods include cash, cheque and card when paying in person at the Town Hall. Unfortunately, we're unable to accept Amex card payments. You can also pay over the telephone by card, or you can take advantage of the convenient and safe online option by going to <https://services.parish.gov.je/Rates>, entering the unique 9-digit code located on the payment slip of your rate demand, and following the simple on-screen instructions. If you're interested in setting up a direct debit payment, please contact Patricia da Silva at patricia.dasilva@posh.gov.je.

This is traditionally the busiest time of the year for the Team, and we ask everyone to allow plenty of time for payments to reach us. Postal delays and difficulties in reaching the Team by telephone are not acceptable reasons for late payment.

If you're struggling and feel you may be unable to pay your bill before 20th October, please contact Phil White on 811833 or email philip.white@posh.gov.je; we may be able to assist with a payment plan.

An election for Constables and Deputies will be held on Wednesday 22nd June 2022, and all information, including districts and polling stations, will feature regularly here in the Town Crier. There will be many changes to the election law before then and you can read up on these at Vote.je. The Team will be sending out the annual Electoral Statements this month, and even if you believe you're already registered, it really is vitally important to complete and send the Statement back to the Town Hall.

You are entitled to register to vote if you are ordinarily resident in Jersey and:

- You are at least 16 years old
- You have lived in the Island for either:
 - the last 2 years or

- the last 6 months plus additional period(s) that total at least 5 years

You can apply to register up to 3 months before your 16th birthday, or up to 3 months before completing either of the residence periods mentioned above.

Finally, and in conjunction with Government guidelines, we recommend that everyone continues to wear face coverings in crowded or indoor areas. The Team appreciates everyone's cooperation and understanding of the sanitising measures that remain in place throughout the Town Hall as we all look forward to a pandemic-free future.

NEW MAYOR ELECTED IN FUNCHAL

Madeirans went to the polls at the end of September, and a new Mayor was elected in Funchal, Dr Pedro Caladro.
