41/19	Item 5: Recommend to the Licensing Bench an application by Jose Alberto Melim holder of a Third Category licence for Gas Place Cafe, Shop 2, Park House, Gas Place, St Helier to extend the ambit of the licence to cover an existing and new outside area of the premises for which the applicant holds a Choses Publiques Permit;
	Proposer: Manuel Rodrigues Da Silva          Seconder: Joaquim A.T. Da Costa Advocate Tremoceiro presented the application stating that his client wished to extend the third category licence for the Cafe to cover the outside Chose Publique area of the premises, which is in Gas Place. The road the Café is situated on is closed to traffic and it makes the corner of Aspley Roads opposite the Millennium Park. The Licence has been in operation for some considerable period and there have been no complaints reported. Customers have asked to be served outside during the summer months, as it is a comfortable area in which to have a drink and failure to approve the application could considerably affect their custom. Advocate Tremoceiro advised that those operating the cafe were suitably responsible and that he would commend the application to the Assembly . No questions were raised and on being put to the vote the application was approved unanimously.
	Procureuer Pearce reminded those that had spoken in respect of the Licensing application that they were entitled to address the Licensing Assembly, which would sit at 10:00am Thursday 26 September to hear the application
	The date of the next scheduled Meeting is a Parish Assembly on Wednesday 7 August 2019
